The DAV curriculum promotes three aspects of achievement:

- The ability to express oneself in oral and written form and wherever appropriate to remember facts accurately and use them constructively.
- The ability to apply knowledge through practical tasks, problem solving, investigation skills, and the use of oral and written languages.
- The development of personal and social skills, such as the ability to work with others and take on a leadership role within a group.

The school follows CBSE curriculum and provides spacious and interactive classrooms, an active and informative library, fully equipped IT Lab and Composite laboratories, comprehensive workshops and seminars, explorative playgrounds to enhance the constructive learning as students get numerous opportunities to explore, experiment, observe and experience.
